Stadium student, winner of 10th Afro Pageant Contest

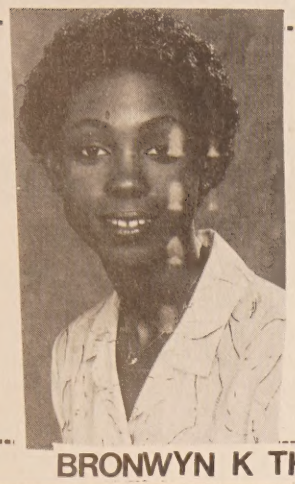
1983



BRONWYN K THOMAS

Saturday night, March 26, 1983 was a big night in Tacoma WA., as the Afro-Pagent got underway at Wilson High School, the princess were beautiful and talented. Finally, the big moment, the votes were tabulated and the winners names were announced, Carmen Fubhum of Lincoln High and Belinda Banks of Foss High School, and finally the queen, Bronwyn K. Thomas.

Bronwyn is the daughter of proud parents, Mr. & Mrs. H.R. Thomas, Jr. A student at Stadium High School, Bronwyn excells in public speaking and plans to attend Evergreen State College, majoring in Communications.

Bronwyn stated that being in the Afro-Pagent was interesting and exciting. She also stressed that being in the pagent, she only wanted to be herself and not to put on any false scenes . When asked what advice would she give to future contestants, she said, select a school that you would be proud to represent, watch your attitude and maintain good grades, in that order. Bronwyn also received the Miss Congeniality Award by the other princess. Prepared and delivered a three minutes speech on the theme "Save the Children." And a ballet number, which was very impressive.

In Tacoma Facts interview with Bronwyn, we found her to be both interesting and poised. As a winner of the pagent, she will receive a $1,000 Scholarship to the college of her choice.

The primary goals of the Afro-Pagent: Are to foster and encourage continued education to stimulate and direct intellectual development, achievement and cultural awareness. Again, we say Congratulations and may you be bless to fulfil your future goals. A trophy goes to the school which represents Ms. Bronwyn K. Thomas for one year.

Features of Pres. Reagan's proposed Employment Act

Job vouchers are an innovative feature of President Reagan's proposed Employment Act of 1983.

This plan would help obtain jobs for 700,000 long-term unemployed men and women who are the victims of structural unemployment, changes in our labor market caused by new technology and the increased competition by foreign imports.

We all know that most people would rather work than draw unemployment benefits and the President's job voucher plan is designed to make this possible for them.

Applicants would obtain information about the plan and apply for it at their local unemployment insurance offices. They would also be able to check the computerized lists of current openings in their metropolitan about opportunities for workers with their skills in other areas.

Workers would become eligible for their job vouchers at the time they establish their eligibility for Federal Supplemental Compensation (FSC). FSC is the unemployment benefit for the long-time unemployed that would also be extended through September 30 by another provision of the President's i Employment Act.

Job vouchers and the extension of Federal Supplemental Compensation are two of the principal features of the Employment Act of 1983, which is the most comprehensive legislative proposal for fighting structural unemployment since the start of the postwar era.

Other features of the act include:

--A Youth Opportunity Wage, allowing employers to hire workers 21 years of age or younger for $2.50 an hour, rather than the regular minimum wage, during the summer months.

--An increase, from $25 million to $240 million, in federal funds to retrain displaced workers.

This ten-fold increase would provide for the retraining of 110,000 currently displaced workers.

The Employment Act of 1983 is President Reagan's coordinated program to combat the very serious problem o, long-term unemployment in our economy. His proposal offers new hope, and a much better future, for millions of American workers now without jobs.

Pierce County Ethics Commission names examiner

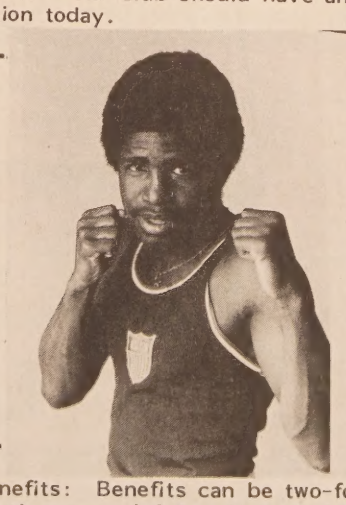
The Pierce County Ethics Commission announced the Commission's selection of retired Judge Horace G. Geer to serve as hearing officer under the Pierce County Code. Commission Chairman James F. Henriot stated, "We are quite pleased that we could secure the services of Judge Geer who is so well resspected in the legal community."

The Commission was established September 15, 1982. The hearing officer must currently be licensed to practice law in the State of Washington and to have had judicial experience as a member of the Superior Court or the Appellate Court branch. No cases are presently pending before the Commission.

LEE RANDOLPH

Former World Junior Weight Champ, Leo, now spends a lot of his time assisting the staff at the Al Davies Boys & Girls Club. Leo is the Steering Committee Chairman of the Al Davies Boys & Girls Club's Alumni Association. The association is just getting started: The theme, "Now it's our Turn". If you are between the ages of 18 and 50 years old and a former member of a Boys Club, you are welcome to join.

Why join? When those of us who are now in the "older age bracket" were romping around the Boys Club in our neighborhoods, there was always someone else standing by to help us either physically or financially. For today's kid, the story's the same. The only difference, perhaps, is that today's society is more demanding of today's generation of youths. "Now it's Our Turn", tells it all. In a nutshell, that's "WHY" our club should have an alumni association today.



Benefits: Benefits can be two-fold. For one, continous good fellowship could be enjoyed by the alumni through varied social events, and individual self-satisfaction could be gained by sharing their lives with the kids.

On the other hand, the Club benefits when the alumni band together to do fund-raising for the club, and to provide leadership, counselling, coaching, education and many other volunteer services. The "Benefits" are unlimited!

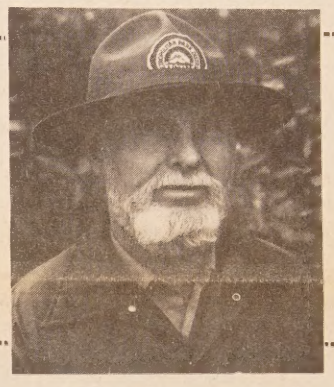
Snake Lake Nature Center—



In the late 1800's, the curator of a prominent natural history museum was urging people to kill the Peregrine Falcon, Cooper's Hawk, Merlin and Sharpshinned Hawk becauee they were, in his words, "bad birds." Today we know better than that. True, all of them make their living by capturing other birds for the major part of their diet. We tend to feel that anything which preys on beautiful songbirds doesn't deserve much respect. That sort of attitude has pervaded our society for such a long time that a true understanding of the role of wildlife species has been slow in acceptance.

Some scientists try to enhance the roles and understanding of raptors, predators and carnivores through their historical brake on overpopulation of the resources and habitats. attitude is a lot simpler that that. There is no such thing as a good or bad animal. Those are human concepts.

We are the creature endowed with reason, understanding and compassion. We alone can contemplate our past and predict our future. We alone have the ability and the desire to eliminate or save other species. It is, therefore, quite important that we do not give other organisms characters they do not have. They are neither good nor bad, they just are. The attitudes of the society in which I grew up 50 years ago do not change easily. It may require one, two or three generations to veer from established concepts. That change has begun, perhaps too late for some species yet it signals that a very real effort is under way. Whether or not it succeds depends largely on whether we are able to save humanity.

Job Corps proves to be good neighbor when disaster strikes

Federal , state and local agencies established for the purpose of responding to natural and man-made disasters and emergencies have been getting unexpected help for nearly two decades from a U.S. Labor Department youth program.

The Job Corps has amassed a bow-taking record of assistance to victims and communities that has provided the Corps with added luster to its record of training and placing disadvantaged youth in worthwhile jobs.

Since 1965, when the first center was opened in Maryland, corpsmembers have responded to calls for help in fires, floods, earthquakes, and a myriad of less spectacular, but equally devastating, emergencies that confront people.

HEZEKIAH
CHAPTER 38

In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And I saiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

And said, Remember now O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

Then came the work of the Lord to Isaiah, saying,

Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard they prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

And this shall be a sign unto thee from the Lord, that the Lord will do this thing that he hath spoken;

Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

Series #I Part 7
THE BIBLE SAID IT.
GOD IS A JEALOUS GOD

Israel was described as Gods first church, therefore the Israelities were the first people to recog nize God as the living God.

The Israelities became his chosen people, They became the Royal nation of God.

The Gentiles were adopted by God into the Royal Family and Moses became the leader of Israel to deliver Israel out of bondage.

The nation of Israel first began in Egypt, under the leadership and caretaker of Joseph, The Prime Minister and Governor of Egypt.

Israel grew into many hundreds and thousands of people, but they were in bondage in Egypt under the great king Pharaoh.

In Egypt they had many false and idol Gods, but God Jehova was the only known true and living God.

The Israelites worship that God and he was known to them as the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, God sent Moses to bring them out of the land of Egypt to the land that he had promised Abraham their fore father, but Pharoah, the king of Egypt would not let them go,but God called Moses to bring plagues upon Egypt to change Pharoah's mind, after which he changed his mind and told them to go, yet he followed them to the Red Sea.

Moses used his rod and it was stretched out at the Red Sea, and the waters parted.

The children of Israel went across on dry land in the center of the Red Sea.
